Demuth Has an Easy Victory in the Harvest Handicap.

MAY WIN, AT 6 TO 1, A WINNER.

Kildeer Was a Surprise in the Elizabeth Stakes at Jerome.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

JEROME PARK RACE TRACK, July 23.—There was plenty of breeze at Jerome today, but the presence of the breeze from the south, and not cooler, for it came from the south, and was entirely out of the back of the grand stand. The few fortunate people who held club-house badges were cool and comfortable on the spacious shaded porch across the track, while the less fortunate ones suffered on the old-fashioned, close stand, for it was insufferably warm.

The programme to-day was a poor one. The fields were light and the races looked foregone conclusions for certain horses, therefore it was uninteresting.

The first race brought a fair lot together, with Long Dan a very heavy favorite. Next in favor was Kingmaker, while Edgar Johnson, who ran a good race yesterday, was utterly neglected. May Win was well played and won easily from the favorite, who beat Kingmaker handsly.

The second race found Nellie Bly and Reckon equal choices at the opening. Nellie Bly's race gradually receded until it was 3 to 1, while Reckon stayed stationary at 2 to 1. A third choice was Kildeer. A tremendous tip was out on Flavilla and she plumed up.

There was nothing in it but Kildeer, who won very handsly from Nellie Bly; Reckon was third.

Many wondered what Barnes was trying to do with Flavilla at the head of the stretch. Demuth ruled a red-hot favorite over "old house" Reckon, with Westchester a good third choice. Demuth won easily from Reckon.

HE SLUGGED SLAVIN.

Mitchell Makes an Exhibition of the Australian.

Knocked Off the Stage in a Liverpool Theatre.

Slavin Was Tipsy and Mitchell Fought Unfairly.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

LONDON, July 23.—Frank P. Slavin, the Australian pugilist who defeated Jake Kilrain in America only a short time ago, was knocked off the stage of a Liverpool theatre last night and held up to the derision of a English sporting audience by Charlie Mitchell, a man whom he believed to be his best friend.

Mitchell trained Slavin for his go with killed him, and had signified his willingness to serve the Australian in the same capacity in the event of his getting on a match with Sullivan.

The professional element, however, was weary of the alleged elimination of the short interest, and they sold the leading issues.

The decline ranged from 3 to 5 per cent., before Friday a rally took place. Rock Island and Western Union were especially firm.

Judge Grosvenor, according to a despatch from Indianapolis, has granted the petition for a receiver for the Toledo, St. Louis and Kentucky Railroad, provided judgments for $200,000 standing against the road are not paid by Sept. 10 next.

The sterling exchange market was weaker today, and prices made a general decline under the leadership of Burlington & Quincy, which sold at the lowest figures yet.

St. Paul & Northern Pacific, which sold at 48 1/2, and Erie, which sold at 48, were the only ones of silver bullion by Saturday's steamer.

Exchange was firm for demand at 4.80 1/2, and it is believed that some gold will go forward by Saturday's steamer. The amount, however, is shrouded in mystery, as orders may come from London and Paris to-morrow.

It is stated that August Belmont & Co. will ship 100,000 ounces of silver bullion by Saturday's steamer.

THE TURF.

Starter Caldwell Upheld in His Trouble with Bergen.

SOME TOO HASTY CRITICS.

Changes in Saturday's Card for Morris Park Races.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

THE Board of Control yesterday sustained Starter Caldwell in his action of setting Jockey Martin Bergen down on July 16. The meeting was a secret one, and no information was vouchsafed by any of the members. The Board of Control seems to be regulated by the same kind of laws which are attempted in the case of election. It was learned, however, that both Mr. David Gideon and Mr. Bergen declared that the latter was being persecuted by Starter Caldwell. Bergen said he had been left by the starter so many times that he had lost all faith in him. Mr. Gideon said that it was conversation he had had with Mr. Caldwell that led him to believe that Bergen was being badly treated. Mr. Caldwell denied all this and declared that Bergen was the most disobedient jockey that ever rode in a race. Gideon and Caldwell had a heated argument over this statement and nearly came to blows. There was only one other witness called. That was the starting judge, Col. Frank Hall, the gentleman who isn't "paid to talk to reporters." It is now known why he would not talk to reporters. It was simply because he didn't know anything about it, and so he bluffed. The Board was unable to bring anything from him concerning the trouble, and they decided to uphold Starter Caldwell.

Right here it may be said that the decision of the Board was proper. There may be injustice done to the jockey, but it was not proven, and the Board could not afford to overrule the starter's decision. Had it done so there would be an end to the starter's control over the jockeys at the track. The trouble at Linden last Fall was caused by the injudicious action of the officials of the Linden Park Association in permitting fines imposed by Mr. Caldwell. The jockey's actions at the post were scandalous, and Mr. Caldwell properly refused to start again.

The Saratoga meeting opened to-day with a very promising programme. All indications point to a successful meeting at "Horse Heaven."

One would naturally think on glancing at the morning papers that the racing at Brighton Beach yesterday was something fearful in the way of crookedness. In every one of the races mentioned, however, a reasonable excuse can be offered. Cruiser's defeat by Lago, or Inferno, as he is now called, raised a howl. Lago always was a cliner at six and a half furlongs, but he has been looking up yesterday shows that he is in the best of shape. Cruiser, who isn't defeated, "does" so easily that every one thought him invincible. They failed him. The Evening World's tipster yesterday. Edipus has been ruling good for some time. He has defeated five-eighths suits him better than six-furlongs. Believe me very close to the six-furlong mark, but he has been looking up in the best of shape.
